UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	)
	)	Case No. 5:06cr00007
v.	)	REPORT AND
	)	RECOMMENDATION
ADRIAN JAMES McMILLER,	)
	)	By: Hon. James G. Welsh
Defendant	)	U.S. Magistrate Judge

The Grand Jury previously returned a multi-count Indictment charging this defendant with criminal participation in three separate transactions, between February 23, 2005 and March 22, 2005, involving the knowing and intentional distribution, or possession with intent to distribute, of five or more grams of a substance containing a detectable amount of cocaine base, a Schedule II controlled substance, each in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Sections 841(a)(1) and 841(b)(1)(B), and Title 18, United States Code, Section 2. He was previously arraigned and entered pleas of Not Guilty to each of the charges. The defendant having now indicated an intent to change his plea to one or more of the Indictment counts, this case was referred to the undersigned for the purpose of conducting a plea hearing in accordance with the provisions of Title 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(3).

The plea hearing was conducted before the undersigned on March 30, 2006. The defendant was, at all times, present in person and with his counsel, Aaron Cook. The United States was represented by Craig Jacobson, Assistant United States Attorney. The proceedings were recorded by a court reporter. See Rule 11(g).

With the defendant's informed and written consent, the undersigned made the following Rule 11 inquiry. The Government proffered its evidence for the purpose of establishing an independent basis for the plea, and the defendant entered a plea of guilty to Count Two of the Indictment.

A. DEFENDANT'S RESPONSES TO RULE 11 INQUIRY

The defendant was placed under oath and addressed personally in open court. He expressly acknowledged that he was obligated to testify truthfully in all respects under penalty of perjury, and he stated that he understood the Government's right, in a prosecution for perjury or false statement, to use against him any statement that he gives under oath. See Rule 11(b)(1)(A).

The defendant testified as follows: his full legal name is Adrian James McMiller; he was born in 1972; he completed the 12th grade in school; he can read and understand English without difficulty; he has no medical condition (either physical or mental) which he believes might impair his ability to understand and to participate fully in the proceeding; he is using no medication or drugs which he believes might impair his ability to understand and to participate fully in the proceeding; he is not under the influence of any alcohol or medicine or drug of any sort; his mind is clear; and he knew that he is in court for the purpose of entering a plea of guilty which he could not later withdraw. His attorney represented to the court that he had no reservations about the defendant's competency to enter a plea of guilty.

After confirming that he had received a copy of the Indictment, the defendant testified that he fully understood the charges, that he had discussed them with his attorney, that he had been given ample time to do so, that he had similarly had sufficient time to discuss any defenses he might have to any of the charges, and that he understood each charge was a felony. See Rule 11(b)(1)(G). He testified that he had been given adequate time to prepare any defenses he might have to the charges contained in the Indictment and was fully satisfied with the services of his attorney. He stated that he had consulted with his attorney, that it was his intention to change his prior plea, that he now desired to enter a plea of guilty to one of the charges, and that he wished the court to accept his proposed change of plea to Count Two of the Indictment.

The defendant confirmed that he fully recognized and understood his right to have the Rule 11 hearing conducted by a United States district judge, and he gave his verbal and written consent to proceed with the hearing before the undersigned U. S. magistrate judge. The defendant's written consent was filed and made a part of the record.

The attorney for the Government informed the court that the defendant's proposed change of plea was to be made pursuant to a written plea agreement. The Government's understanding of the plea agreement was then stated in some detail, including the sentencing recommendation and related terms (paragraphs D, E, G and I), the defendant's stipulation of responsibility for 75.2 grams of cocaine base for Guideline §§ 2D1.1 and 1B1.3 purposes (paragraph D), the prosecution's intention to request dismissal of certain indictment counts (paragraph C), the terms of any evidence proffer (paragraph J), the defendant's waiver of his right to appeal any sentence and waiver of his right to jury determination of any guidelines issues (paragraph K) (See Rule 11(b)(1)(N)), the defendant's waiver of any right to make any 28 U.S.C. §2255 attack on the judgment or any part of the sentence in this case (paragraph K) (See Rule 11(b)(1)(N)), and the substance of the terms set forth in paragraphs lettered L. through W. of the plea agreement. Defense counsel then confirmed the same to be his understanding. After which, the defendant was again addressed in open court and stated that his understanding of the plea agreement was the same as that set forth by the Government's attorney.

The defendant and his counsel separately represented that they had reviewed each of the plea agreement terms, and each represented that the defendant understood all of the terms. After looking at his signature on the plea agreement, the defendant acknowledged his signature under oath.

Upon further inquiry, the defendant testified that no one had made any other, different or additional promise or assurance of any kind in an effort to induce him to enter a plea of guilty in this case and that no one had attempted in any way to force him to plead guilty. After the undersigned noted for the record that the written Plea Agreement constitutes the best statement of its terms, and as such it “speaks for itself,” the written and executed agreement was filed and made a part of the record.

The defendant then testified that he knew and understood that he was proposing to enter a plea of guilty to Count Two of the Indictment charging him with possession with intent to distribute five or more grams of cocaine base (crack) on March 10, 2005, in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 841(a)(1) and 841(b)(1)(B).

After the attorney for the Government informed the defendant of the statutory minimum sentence of five years for this offense, the defendant expressly acknowledged his understanding of the mandatory minimum sentence of incarceration.<sup>1</sup> See Rule 11(b)(1)(I). After the attorney for the Government further informed the defendant of the maximum penalty for this offense, the defendant expressly acknowledged that he knew the maximum statutory penalty for the offense charged in Count Two was incarceration for forty years, a maximum fine of $2,000,000.00, and four years

<sup>1</sup> Defendant was also informed that he could be sentenced to less than five years imprisonment if the government makes a motion pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3553(e) on his behalf, or if he qualifies for the “Safety-Valve” set forth in Title 18, Section 3553(f). (See also ¶ F of Plea Agreement) supervised release. See Rule 11(b)(1)(H). In addition, he acknowledged that at sentencing the court would impose, and he would be obligated to pay, a mandatory $100.00 assessment. See Rule 11(b)(1)(L).

The defendant testified that he knew he was proposing to plead guilty to a felony offense. He knew and understood that his plea, if accepted, would result in him being adjudged guilty of the offense and that such adjudication may deprive him of valuable civil rights, such as the right to vote, the right to hold public office, the right to serve on a jury, and the right to possess any kind of firearm.

The defendant stated that he had discussed with his attorney how the Sentencing Commission Guidelines might apply in his case. He expressly acknowledged his awareness of the fact that the Guidelines were no longer mandatory, but would be applied by the court in an advisory fashion to determine a reasonable sentence. See Rule 11(b)(1)(M); United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220 (2005); United States v. Moreland, 437 F.3d 424 (4th Cir. 2006). He stated that he knew it was within the court's discretion not to apply the advice of the Guidelines and to impose a sentence either higher or lower than called-for in the Guidelines, so long as the sentence was not greater than the statutory maximum for the offense. See Rule 11(b)(1)(M)

The defendant testified that he understood the court would not be able to determine the recommended Guideline sentence for his case until after the presentence report had been completed and he and the Government each had an opportunity to challenge the facts reported by the probation officer. He acknowledged that he understood, irrespective of any sentence imposed by the court, he would have no right to withdraw his plea of guilty. He expressly acknowledged his understanding that the court's determination of his sentence would include consideration of multiple factors, including: the nature and circumstances of the offense; the defendant's history and characteristics;

the seriousness of the offense; the need to promote respect for the law; the need to provide for just punishment and afford adequate deterrence; the need to protect the public; any determined need to provide the defendant with educational or vocational training, medical care or other correctional treatment in the most efficient manner; the kinds of available sentences; the pertinent sentencing guidelines and policy statements; the need to avoid unwanted sentence disparities; and the need to provide restitution. In addition, the defendant represented that he understood the court could order him to make full restitution to any victim and, pursuant to the plea agreement (paragraphs N and R), he may be required to forfeit property to the Government. See Rule 11(b)(1)(J)–(K).

The defendant testified that he knew, by pleading guilty to Count Two and stipulating his drug weight responsibility, he was waiving his right to have a jury determine beyond a reasonable doubt the facts alleged in Count Two and those related to sentencing. He expressly acknowledged that, pursuant to the plea agreement, he was waiving his right to appeal his conviction, waiving his right to appeal any Guideline sentencing issues, waiving his right to appeal any sentence of the court within the Guidelines on the grounds of unreasonableness, and waiving his right to challenge his conviction and/or sentence in any post-conviction proceeding.

Each of defendant's procedural rights surrendered on a plea of guilty was also explained, including: his right to persist in his previous pleas of not guilty to the offenses charged against him; his right to a speedy trial; his right to a trial by jury; his right to be represented and to have the assistance of counsel at trial and at every other stage of the proceeding; his right at trial to see, to hear, to confront and to have cross-examined all adverse witnesses; his right to be protected from compelled self-incrimination; his right to testify and to present evidence in his defense; his right to the issuance of subpoenas, or compulsory process, to compel the attendance of witnesses to testify in his defense; his presumption of innocence; the obligation of the Government to prove his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt; the right on his part to decline to testify unless he voluntarily elected to do so in his own defense; and his right to have a unanimous guilty verdict. See Rule 11(b)(1)(B)–(E). The defendant testified that he understood his right to persist in his plea of not guilty and the attendant rights that he knew he was giving-up by entering a guilty plea. See Rule 11(b)(1)(F).

He testified that he understood he would have no right to withdraw his plea, and would still be bound by his plea, even if the court's sentence is more severe than he expects or if the court does not accept the Government's sentencing recommendation.

The defendant stated that he knew his entry of a plea of guilty would mean that there would be no trial. He stated that he knew there would be only one more hearing, where the presiding district judge would determine whether there was a factual basis for the plea and what sentence to impose. The defendant was informed and acknowledged that parole had been abolished. He stated that he knew he would not be released on parole in connection with any term of imprisonment imposed by the court. He further stated that he was aware and understood any sentence to a period of imprisonment would also include a term of post-incarceration "supervised release" lasting generally from one to five years. In addition, he stated that he knew any violation of the terms and conditions of supervised release could result in his being returned to prison for an additional period of time.

The defendant expressly acknowledged that the entry of a plea of guilty to Count Two was an admission of all of the elements of a formal criminal charge, and without equivocation he testified that he was pleading guilty because he was in fact guilty of the crime charged in Count Two of the Indictment.

To permit the court to determine that an independent factual basis existed both for the proposed plea and for drug weight stipulation, counsel for the Government summarized the facts which the Government was prepared to prove at trial. The defendant, both by counsel and individually, then confirmed the accuracy of the Government's proffer. And in response to a further inquiry, the defendant testified that he had heard and understood all parts of the proceeding and that he still wished to plead guilty.

After consultation with his attorney, the defendant waived a reading of Count Two of the Indictment and entered a plea of GUILTY to said Count Two alleging his violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 8461. The defendant then executed the requisite form, and it was filed and made a part of the record..

In response to further questioning for the purpose of ensuring that his proposed plea was voluntary, the defendant again stated that (other than the promises expressly set forth in the written plea agreement) his plea did not result from any force, threats, or promises of any kind (see Rule 11(b)(2), that his decision to plead guilty was in all respects voluntary on his part, and that it was being made with the advice and assistance of counsel.

After entering his plea as aforesaid, after an independent basis for his plea had been established and after being informed that the undersigned would recommend acceptance of his plea, the defendant reconfirmed that no one had forced him either to enter into the plea agreement or to plead guilty. He further reconfirmed that, other than the express terms of the plea agreement, no one had made him any promises of leniency or light sentence in order to induce him to plead guilty. He stated that he was fully satisfied with the services of his attorney.

The defendant was then remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal, pending completion of a presentence report.

B. GOVERNMENT'S EVIDENCE

To permit the court to determine that an independent factual basis existed for the defendant's proposed plea of guilty to Count Two of the Indictment, the Government, by its attorney, proffered the following facts. Under supervision of an investigating agent, an informant called the defendant on March 10, 2005 and arranged to make a 1 oz. purchase of cocaine base ("crack"). The informant and the defendant met at a Hardee's restaurant in or near Harrisonburg, where the informant made a $1,200.00 controlled and tape recorded purchase of 23.6 grams of cocaine base. The weight and content of the purchased substance was later confirmed by laboratory analysis. To establish an independent basis for the 75.2 gram drug weight stipulation in section D of the plea agreement, counsel for the Government represented, based on laboratory confirmations, that the drug weight total included the drug amounts involved in Count Two (23.6 grams), in Count One (23.8 grams), in Count Three (25.3 grams), and found on the defendant (2.5 grams) at the time of his August 15, 2005 arrest.

C. FINDINGS OF FACT

Based on the evidence, representations of counsel, and defendant's sworn testimony presented as part of the Rule 11 hearing, the undersigned submits the following formal findings of fact, conclusions and recommendations:

1. The defendant is fully competent and capable of entering an informed plea;
2. The defendant is fully aware of the nature of the charges and the consequences of his change of plea;
3. The defendant is fully informed, and he understands, the enumerated items set forth in Rule 11(b)(1)(A)–(N);

4. Before entering his plea, the defendant and the Government reached a plea agreement which was reduced to writing;
5. Defendant's entry into the written plea agreement (including the drug weight stipulation) and his tender of a plea of guilty to Count Two were both made with the advice and assistance of counsel;
6. The defendant's entry of a plea of guilty to Count Two was made with knowledge and an understanding both of the nature of the offense and the full range of punishment which might be imposed;
7. The defendant's plea of guilty is fully voluntary and did not result from any force, threats, or promises other than the one promise contained in the plea agreement;
8. The plea agreement complies with the requirements of Rule 11(c)(1);
9. The evidence presents an independent basis in fact containing each essential element of the offense to which the defendant is pleading guilty; and
10. The evidence presents an independent basis in fact for the 75.2 gram drug weight stipulation.

D. RECOMMENDED DISPOSITION

Based on the above findings of fact, the undersigned RECOMMENDS that the court accept defendant's plea of guilty to Count Two of the Indictment, that the defendant be adjudged guilty of that offense, that a sentencing hearing be scheduled by the presiding District Judge on June 26, 2006 at 10:30 a.m.
